

GGP Reaches Out to Students

At the December installment of the General Growth Properties (GGP) Voices of Vision series, Dr. Robert Burchell visited with 150 10th grade students from an American Government class at Oakland Mills High School to discuss downtown development.